

Crimson Stain
CCLI #7067904

Verse

The crimson stain of love washes away the shame
Light breaks the power of dark when lips speak the Name
Cause You've won over the war
Over the fight, over the grave oh with Your life
Burning inside leading me through to find to find

1st Chorus

Your love has opened the skies
Love You opened my eyes
Love is alive and it's ready shine
Love Your lifting me higher
Loves burning me brighter
Your love is why I'm living to shine

2nd and Last Chorus

Your love has opened the skies
Love You opened my eyes
Love is alive and it's ready shine
Love Your lifting me higher
Loves burning me brighter
Your love is why I'm

Never the same, I'm never the same
Because of the Blood because of the Name
You're flooding my heart with all that You are
Your love is a light burning inside and I'm living to shine
I'm living to shine
