

More Than I Can Say
CCLI #6355995

After Your life and all that You gave away
After Your love I'm never the same
Cause it's Your heart that beating inside
Calling to live and filling with life
Oh with Your life

To answer the call was worth every minute of it all
To walk on the waves never to fall
Oh and the way I can feel You inside
Never alone but ever alive

So what I can offer more than giving You this heart that's been forgiven
When words alone they fail to repay
What great love made the decision to be broken for transgression
Now everything I want to give away is more than I can say

So here's my heart
Here's my mind my strength my soul
No matter the cost
No matter the road

Cause with three nails
Oh and nothing left to say
You loved You paid You saved
