

Your Life
CCLI #7067902

You are the fight that broke through the walls inside
You call to deeper and deeper You call to find Your life

You are the song that resounds in my head and my heart
You hold my world in Your hands by the power of Your scars

Awaken my soul
Awaken my hope

To Life, Your life
Dying you made a way and I live now to proclaim Your life

What You say Lord I will say oh.
What You do I do oh
Give it all now just to feel how I feel when I feel You
